

February 4, 1976

We've done it, redone it and redone it. Now if the first act of the Legislature, on a criminal law in this body, is to pass a piece of trash that covers everything that nobody can understand then we have repudiated all this work. If you want to deal with cock fighting, deal with cock fighting, but don't have a bill that makes a mockery of our work and our legislative knowledge. However, in order to give you the opportunity to vote on this bill right in its form as it is now I would ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion and let you vote the bill up or down on its merits as it now sits. The proponents of the bill have said they're willing to accept it. I think the bill should live or die as it is now.

PRESIDENT: I don't think that will be appropriate to allow you to withdraw it at this time. No one had an opportunity to respond to your argument, Senator DeCamp. Is there an objection to the request? There is an objection. The request is denied. Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I'll tell you why I object, because I don't want anybody to think I'm wasting time. Senator DeCamp has a way of using tactics like this. He had an opportunity to give about a five minute argument against a bill and the argument would not ordinarily be allowed on Final Reading. I think in fairness there should be an opportunity to say something with reference to his remarks.

Senator DeCamp, you seem to have a propensity for attacking my bills which is your privilege. I think if.... No, that would be inappropriate to say what I was going to say. So I'm not going to say if I were running for office I'd pick a man who'd be a campaign issue in my area and attack him, but I'm not going to say it.

PRESIDENT: State your point.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I dealt with the bill. If this man can't, tell him to shut up!

PRESIDENT: No, I'm not going to tell him to shut up, Senator. That would be inappropriate. I am....

SENATOR DeCAMP: All I want to deal with is the issues in this bill.

PRESIDENT: I'm sustaining your point.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And if Senator DeCamp changes....

PRESIDENT: Now wait. Gentlemen, gentlemen. Both of you are better then this.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, right!

PRESIDENT: Proceed with your argument, Senator Chambers. Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: One thing I want to make clear, I've never told anybody on this floor to shut up and nobody is going to tell me that on this floor.
